Statutory Declaration

I, [redacted]
(Name, first name, address, birth date)

Date of birth: 1981-[redacted]

I do solemnly declare that,

Q1: (Introduction). Would you like to start with the police situation?

A1: In the summer of 2015, I got a total amount of 2500 dollars of tickets from the police for riding a bicycle on a sidewalk. I found that very unusual because he gave me so many tickets for a lot of infractions. I was close to Berri-UQAM, on the streets Hotel-de-Ville and Ste-Catherine in Montréal.

Q2: Did you have to identify yourself?

A2: Yes, I had to. The police gave me ticket because I was riding my bicycle on a sidewalk. It is a lot of tickets. I kept them in my pocket. It happened 2 summers ago.

Q3: Do you want to talk about something else?

A3: Yes, about two winters ago, I was in Montreal, on St-Laurent and Ste-Catherine streets, I had a beer in my backpack and I was with friends in front of a strip club. A police officer asked me to come so I went to see him. He asked me questions like my name and he checked on a computer so he knew I was on bail and I should not be drinking alcohol. I was smelling alcohol. He found a beer in my backpack. I explained to him that I was waiting for my sister and going to sleep at her place because I had nowhere else to go for the night. He sat me in his car and drove me in an area behind a field that I don't even know. On the surrounding of Montreal. I was frightening. I don't even remember what he said. I was afraid and emotional. He let me out of the car. He said to get sober and find your way back to where I was staying. He was not threatening me. Maybe it is just a way for him to not have to do the paperwork, I don't know.

Q4: Do you think he identified you as an Inuk?

A4: Not right away because of the way I was dress and I was with a mix group of friends. But after, he looked in my file and saw the conditions and all.
